The Year In Review . . .

The academic year started on a good note. While Queen Elizabeth was visiting the Bluegrass State, almost 2400 new and returning students settled into campus life. New Public Information Director Patty Plotnick designed a promotional campaign for the 'Canes football team. The Sou'wester, GSW's student newspaper, celebrated its 50th year of publication. The first copy of the Clay & Pine was distributed to students. The GSW Theatre presented Paul Zindel's award-winning play, "The Effects of Gamma Rays on Man-In-The-Moon Marigolds." Patty Plotnick, Sally Altman, Amy Stewart and

Valerie Thomas starred. Panhellenic sorority rush came early this year and approximately 42 women accepted bids. The 'Canes soccer team worked hard to overcome player shortages and injuries. Physical Plant workers began renovating the lakehouse, which was funded by the Student Government Association with Student Activity funds. The Crest Room of the Marshall Student Center was redecorated, and new rules were instituted for a brief time which prohibited students from eating, drinking or posting signs. After a public out-cry against this "off-limits" policy, these rules were repealed. Alison Breeze joined the Office of Student Life staff as Associate Dean for Student Activities. From a number of applicants, 13 GSW students were selected to Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. Several student organizations were dissatisfied with their budget allocations, and SGA President Chris Mitchell had his hands full with the complainants. SGA was prompted by this reaction to revise their budget allocation schedule in order to complete allocations before mid-term of Spring Quarter, and thus leaving ample time to notify all organizations of their allocation before the school year was over. Elaine Espy was promoted to Cadet Lt. Colonel and received the coveted General Creighton Abrams award. An elaborate Homecoming was planned. Five women were vying for the title of Miss Homecoming: Deborah Hubbard, Sharon Grubbs, Barbara Montgomery, Jill Roach and Sherri Stevens. Alexis Alexander was planning the Miss SABU pageant. Students prepared to vote in the 1984 presidential election. They favored Reagan over Mondale, 63% to 37%. The 'Canes rolled over Baptist University and Barbara Montgomery was crowned Miss Homecoming. Charlotte Stallworth captured the Miss SABU crown. An Oktoberfest was sponsored by the International Friendship Association in the Windsor Hotel. The Windsor was the sight of another successful activity: the GSW Chamber Singers dressed in period costumes and hosted a Madrigal Dinner series. On the international scene, the first benefit recording for drought-stricken Ethiopia was made by top names in British rock. 200 seniors prepared for fall graduation. The MSCPC used its newly purchased wide-screen TV to show movies in the Crest Room. The 'Canes football team ended their winning season at 5-3. Nancy Reagan spent $25,000 on her inauguration wardrobe, while a killer cold wave was claiming lives in Europe. GSW suspended classes on January 15 in honor of Martin Luther King, Jr. Dr. Lennett J. Daigle was approved by the Board of Regents as Chairman of the Department of English and Foreign Languages. The Postal Service raised the price of stamps again while the January weather hit an all-time low in several parts of the state. The Office of Student Life was reorganized, with Dr. Carol L. Ritchie appointed as Acting Dean of Students, Anne Power as Acting Associate Dean for Residence Life, Ron deValinger as Acting Coordinator of Counseling and Orientation and Dr. James Altman as Acting Director of Admissions. Dr. Roger Campbell was appointed Assistant to the President. The Aeolian, GSW's alumni newspaper, became a magazine. The lakehouse and Media Center renovations were completed during Winter Quarter. Black History Month was celebrated in February. George F. Bennett was appointed Director of College Relations. Duncan Hall was "bombarded" and had to evacuate to Complex III several times. "Godspell" was presented by the GSW Theatre.

The Year In Review . . .

The 'Canes basketball teams were burning up the courts. SGA elections were held, and for the first time in history, GSW had a Black majority in student government. Tony Hill was elected president. After a bitter dispute between athletes and other students, athletic fees were increased by $7. The O'Team selected 11 new members. The Lady 'Canes finished their season at 26-3. The men's basketball team won the NAIA District 25 championship and went on to the national tournament in Kansas City for the first time in GSW history. GSW student Gina Goodroe was crowned Miss Americus. The remodeled Learning Center opened during Spring Quarter. 26 outstanding students were recognized in the Honors Election, among them Jill Roach, voted Miss Gale, and Billy Sellers, voted Bachelor of Ugliness. Ina Johnson and Jana Salter won $1002.94 in the KISS FM Thousand Dollar Thursday contest. Plains held its Centennial celebration in May. GSW students, faculty and staff went to Plains to run in a race with President Jimmy Carter and see Willie Nelson in concert. Dr. James Bagwell, professor of history at GSW, buried a time capsule which will be opened in 2085. The GSW Theatre presented Moliere's "The Imaginary Invalid." The SGA made its budget allotments for the '85-'86 academic year. Israel offered a $1 million reward for D. Josef Mengele, the Auschwitz "Angel of Death." The IFC/Panhellenic Greek Banquet was held. Erwin Harrell and Laing Adkins were named IFC Greek Man and Panhellenic Greek Woman of the Year, respectively. The GSW Chamber Singers held their first "Cabaret", which will become an annual event. The Business Department students and faculty got together for a light-hearted "roast" of each other. Over 100 GSW students and students from nearby colleges participated in a Leadership Workshop, facilitated by Andy Mozenter of Penn State. ENAC was born! The newly chosen mascot (a lion) will lead the ENAC PRIDE, GSW's new spirit organization. Alexander Palamiotis, professor of political science, announced his retirement after 25 years of service to the college. Erik Murchison was chosen as editor of The Sou'wester for '85-'86. Jana Salter will edit the 1986 GALE.

ACTIVITIES

Steel drums from the Caribbean and an outdoor picnic on the Marshall Student Center patio were among the most popular activities this year. The Marshall Student Center Program Council and ARA Food Services joined forces for this special event.

FACULTY

Dr. Alexander A. Palamiotis announced his retirement after 25 years of service to GSW. He was awarded the 1985 Excellence in Teaching Award by the Alumni Association and honored with the status of Professor Emeritus of Political Science by the Board of Regents.

Dr. William H. Capitan

About The President . . .

Dr. Capitan was born in Owosso, Michigan. He is married to the former Dolores Marie Randolph and they have two children, Rita Anne and Edwin Andrew (Ned).

He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in philosophy from the University of Michigan in 1954. He also studied for a year at Queen's University, Belfast, North Ireland, before enrolling at the University of Minnesota where he was awarded his M.A. degree in 1958 and his Ph.D in 1960 in the field of philosophy. Additionally, he studied a year in Paris under a fellowship from the American Council of Learned Societies.

He served as an instructor of philosophy at the University of Minnesota 1959-60, and the University of Maryland, 1960-62. He was an assistant professor of philosophy at Oberlin College from 1962-65, and served as associate professor and chairman of the Department of Philosophy from 1965-70. From 1970-72 he was Dean of Fine Arts at Saginaw Valley State College. From 1972-74 he served as vice-president for academic affairs at Saginaw Valley State College, and acting president from January 1974 until July 1974. Prior to assuming the presidency at Georgia Southwestern College in July 1979, he was vice-president for academic affairs at West Virginia Wesleyan College, Buckhannon, West Virginia.

Dr. Capitan served on the Board of Directors of Buckhannon Chamber of Commerce, 1975-78. He served on the Board of Directors of Saginaw Symphony Association, Saginaw, Michigan. He was secretary and treasurer of the Academy for Academic Personnel Administration. He is a Phi Kappa Phi, a member of Rotary International and the Protestant Episcopal Church. He has served as the president of the Americus Chamber of Commerce since January of 1984, and previously served as the Chamber's vice-president. He is the author of various books, articles, and reviews.

After arriving at Southwestern, Dr. Capitan immediately involved all campus personnel in a thorough self study of the College and developing a systematic procedure for the continuous improvement of all phases of the collegial life.

The current Institutional Goals, set for a three-year period from 1985-88, reflect a continual, concerted striving for quality at Georgia Southwestern.

All black and white half tones are reproduced using 150-line elliptical dot screen. All color, on pages 86 and 87 and pages 98 through 111, is reproduced using actual size type-C prints. Color separations are made using WPC's Hell Laser Scanner. The computerized photo composition typestyle utilized throughout the book is Benquiat with type sizes ranging from 6 to 36 point.

The Walsworth Publishing Company representative is Ross Henderson of Atlanta, Georgia.

Modern Studios of Americus, Georgia, served as photographer for class portraits and many special events pictured throughout this yearbook. They also developed and printed many of the candid photographs. Many photographs were also obtained from the Sou'wester, the student newspaper of Georgia Southwestern College, Ms. Jana Salter, Editor.

Funding for the 1985 Gale was voted by the 1984-1985 Student Government Association from the General Student Activities Fund of Georgia Southwestern College.

GSW is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Institution.

The 1985 GALE would still be five lines of copy and two boxes of photographs were it not for the determination of a few people to produce an annual for the students of Georgia Southwestern College. The following people contributed time, advice, copy and photographs to make this annual a reality: Barbara Billings, Patience Busby, Ina Johnson, Patty Plotnick, Jana Salter, Avi Seaver, Andy Shivers, Helen Shivers, and Wesley Wicker. Special thanks are due to Ross Henderson, our company representative, for his work with the layout and the crash lessons in producing a yearbook.
